The Rev. Dr. Marion Platt

Reverend Dr. Marion Platt is the sixth Executive Director and Pastor of Star Gospel Mission's 119 year history. A native of Charleston, Marion served two enlistments as a U.S. Army infantryman before embarking on a nineteen-year ministry with The Salvation Army. He has held executive, academic, and pastoral roles in several cities across the South; he earned his doctoral degree from Trevecca Nazarene University (Nashville) and is a sought-after lecturer, evangelist, and revivalist. Marion has been a Rotarian for 19 years, sits on the Board of Directors for Trident United Way, and serves on the Faith-Based Advisory Council of the International African American Museum in Charleston.

Feel free to write to him at marion.platt@stargospelmission.org.
