I am a retired Long Islander who has lived in the Charleston area for the past seven years. In my working life I was a sales engineer for a multinational company who designed, among other things, robotic food systems for the Oriental and Italian Food Industry. Having worked in Japan, Italy, and the USA, I chose the Charleston area to retire in due to my love of its history, climate, and culture. I am an amateur historian with a particular interest in our Nation's colonial era. I am also a great admirer of Marie-Joseph Paul Yves Roch Gilbert du Motier de Lafayette - the Marquis de Lafayette, who initially landed right up the road from here on North Island, near Georgetown, in June of 1777.

I became a member of The American Friends of Lafayette, The Lafayette Society, and the Lafayette Trail and am the South Carolina Committee Chairperson for the South Carolina Bicentennial Committee for the American Friends of Lafayette. Our organization is replicating Lafayette's 6000-mile tour around the then 24 States of our young Nation from August 1824 to September 1825 when he was feted as the Guest of our Nation and the Hero of Two Worlds.

I live in an Over 55 and write for our History Forum and Community Magazine. I have been giving presentations on the Marquis around our State in preparation for the upcoming Bicentennial Tour.
