MARK ARNOLD

Mount Pleasant Chief of Police

Chief Mark Arnold began his career in law enforcement with the Mount Pleasant Police Department as a patrol officer in 1995. During his career, he held the position of Career Development Supervisor where he developed and conducted training programs consistent with national, state, and departmental standards. He then served as the accreditation manager for the Police Department. Chief Arnold was promoted to Lieutenant in 2013. A year later, he was promoted to the rank of Captain and managed the Field Operations Bureau and the Support Services Bureau. He was promoted to Deputy Chief in July 2020 and Chief of Police in May of 2021. He holds a BA in Political Science from the Citadel and a Master of Science in Criminal Justice from Charleston Southern University. His specialized education and training include graduation from Department of Homeland Security Leadership Academy and the Southern Police Institute Administrative Officers Course through the University of Louisville.
