The Dee Norton Child Advocacy Center

Beverly Hutchison has served as the Executive Director of The Dee Norton Child Advocacy Center in 2021, assuming the role at the center in the height of the pandemic. The mantra "how do I serve best?" has been threaded through each role that Hutchison served during her 34 years at Dee Norton Child Advocacy Center.

Hutchison began her involvement as a member of the Junior League of Charleston when she volunteered in the lobby in 1991-93. She joined the Board of Directors in 1996. Serving on the Board for five years, Hutchison held various leadership positions including Chair of the Board.

Hutchison joined the staff as a part-time Fundraising Coordinator in 2001 and in that role, she created and implemented successful fundraising events, worked on the first-ever endowment campaign and continued to grow the donor database. She assumed the Director of Development and Marketing for The Dee Norton Child Advocacy Center in 2013 where she was responsible for the strategic direction for fundraising and marketing for the Center and oversaw a successful $5 million capital campaign.

She and her husband Len have lived in Mt. Pleasant for over 25 years and are parents of two adult children and proud grandparents to four children.
