Novant Health

Nancy McInroy is a strategic philanthropy leader with extensive experience building and advancing healthcare foundations. She currently serves as Chief Philanthropy Officer for the Novant Health Foundation South Carolina Region, where she is leading the development of the Foundation from the ground up to support patient care, employee well-being, and community health initiatives.

Nancy brings a collaborative, donor-centered approach to fundraising, partnering closely with physicians, executives, and community leaders to align philanthropic investment with organizational priorities. Her work focuses on creating meaningful impact through major gifts, grateful patient programs, and community engagement while strengthening a culture of philanthropy across the organization.

Known for her transparent leadership style and ability to translate mission into measurable outcomes, Nancy is passionate about connecting donors to opportunities that improve lives and elevate the healthcare experience for patients and families in the Lowcountry.

Originally from the Metro Detroit area, Nancy relocated to South Carolina in January 2025 from Chicago where she served as the President of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in Illinois.
