Habitat for Humanity

Kevin Brokes has been with Habitat for Humanity since 2016 and assumed the position of Executive Director of East Cooper Habitat for Humanity in 2023. Last year, the Charleston and East Cooper Habitat for Humanity affiliates merged, and he became the COO for the new Charleston Habitat for Humanity. Kevin was the organization's Construction Manager for six years until 2022. While Construction Manager, Brokes gained an exceptional amount of experience in homeowner partnerships, portfolio management, land acquisition and development, insurance and more. Brokes brings extensive management experience to Habitat for Humanity from prior roles at Walmart, CVS and Lowes Cineplex Entertainment. He has also had success in growing businesses including a local landscaping company that started as a hobby and grew to a six-figure in sales, multiple employee operation. Brokes has lived in Mount Pleasant with his wife and their two high school sons for over 25 years. In his spare time, he enjoys running and is the Scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts of America Scouting Troop 502.

The Rotary Club of Mount Pleasant mourns the passing of our dear friend and fellow Rotarian, Norm McNair, who left a lasting legacy after a remarkable and well-lived 95 years. Norm was a quintessential embodiment of "Service Above Self," almost always seen with a bright, welcoming smile that warmed our weekly meetings. He brought a sharp mind and a playful spirit to our gatherings, particularly through his wit and depth of knowledge that never failed to impress. Beyond the laughter, Norm remained deeply committed to our mission, consistently rolling up his sleeves to support Rotary Service projects and better our community. While we will miss his presence at the table, we celebrate a life defined by longevity, kindness, and an unwavering dedication to helping others.
