Lowcountry Maritime School

Sam Gervais is the Executive Director of Lowcountry Maritime School. He joined LMS in the summer of 2019 after nine years in education teaching high school history. He brings years of experience working with students of all ages and is excited by the educational opportunities LMS is able to offer children in the Lowcountry.

Sam majored in History and Education at Clemson University and has a strong interest in our local history, especially as it connects to our maritime heritage.

A native of Johns Island, Sam grew up messing about in boats in the Stono River and other local waterways. He enjoys sailing, fishing, shrimping, or any other excuse to be on the water and is excited to share his love of the Lowcountry with students.
