HCA Healthcare

When Jeff Wilson left his family's farm in Kansas as a young man he began a journey that has taken him to leadership positions in government and healthcare. His background in writing health policy served as an invaluable foundation to his more than 20-year career with HCA Healthcare.

Jeff earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Government from The University of Kansas; a Master's Degree in Health/Health Care Administration/Management from Virginia Commonwealth University; and a Certificate of Management, Public Health/Business from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

He moved to the HCA Healthcare Charleston Market in 2024. He now serves as President of HCA's Charleston Market and CEO of HCA Healthcare Trident Hospital. In addition to Trident Hospital, HCA's sites of care in the Charleston area include:

- Summerville Hospital
- Live Oak Mental Health and Wellness
- Four freestanding ERs – Brighton Park ER, Centre Park ER, James Island ER and Moncks Corner ER
- By the end of this year, HCA will open Long Point ER and Johns Island ER. And, Cane Bay ER is scheduled to open in 2027.

While in the Charleston Market, Jeff has led Trident and Summerville Hospitals to national quality recognition that includes:

- America's 250 Best Hospitals
- America's 50 Best Hospitals in the U.S. for Cardiac Surgery
- America's 100 Best Hospital for Orthopedic, Prostate and Spine Surgery
- Top 10% in the U.S. for the Coronary Artery Bypass Grafting procedure
- Top 50 Hospital in the U.S. for cardiovascular surgery

Member Spotlight!

Randolph Tiller was born on March 21, 1950, in Florence, South Carolina, and grew up with my older sister, Janice. My childhood was filled with sports, quail hunting, freshwater fishing, and work at my father's store, Midway Grocery, where I learned the value of hard work at an early age. After graduating from McClenaghan in 1968, I attended Clemson and graduated in 1973. Laurie and I married in 1972 and moved to Greenville, where I began my career in advertising. In 1977, we returned to Florence so I could run the family business. I entered real estate in 1983, purchased a Coldwell Banker franchise in 1992, and sold it in 2006. Over the years, Laurie and I lived in Florence, Greenville, and the Charleston area, always grateful to be near family. We have three children and eight grandchildren.

Community and church service have been important parts of my life. I served on church sessions in Florence and Mt. Pleasant, the Florence County Planning Commission, the Florence County Disabilities Foundation, the Board of Realtors of the Pee Dee, and the Florence West Rotary Club. In 1988, I was honored as Realtor of the Year. After 54 years of marriage, I look back on a life shaped by family, faith, work, service, and gratitude. I truly feel blessed and can honestly say I am the luckiest guy in the world.
