Be A Mentor!

Emily Cruse is the Executive Director of Be A Mentor, a Charleston-based nonprofit dedicated to elevating the assets of our youth through one-to-one and group mentoring programs. With a background in youth development and program leadership, Emily has led the organization in expanding its reach and deepening its impact. She is passionate about building a strong village of support around young people and believes in the power of connection to change lives.

Today, she joins us to share how mentorship strengthens communities and creates lasting opportunities for youth.

Doug

Stalnaker:

Doug is native Oklahoman, born and bred. He attended Oklahoma State University on a wrestling scholarship.

After Clemson hired a coach from Oklahoma Doug took a 1,000 mile trip from home to follow him and he's been in the Carolinas ever since.

After completing his collegiate wrestling career and graduating from Clemson, Doug started his surety bond underwriting journey in Charlotte, NC. That career continues today, 39 years later, as SVP, Head of Contract Surety with Skyward Specialty Insurance.

He's been married to Sheryl for 36 years and their twins, Sam & Sophie, were born and raised in Mount Pleasant.

He joined the Mount Pleasant Breakfast Rotary Club in 1999, serving on their Board and was Club Secretary. His career took him back to Charlotte in 2003 and he left Rotary at that time. Doug is excited to get involved in Rotary again and looks forward to being very involved in the Club.

Doug & Sheryl, off & on empty nesters now, live in Creekside Park and are members of Mount Pleasant Presbyterian Church.
